

MINNESOTA SUPREME COURT HISTORICAL SOCIETY

SESQUICENTENNIAL EVENTS

Minnesota Supreme Court Historical Society's display at the Sesquicentennial Celebration on the State Capitol Grounds.

Justice Lorie Skjerven Gildea portrayed Martha Angle Dorsett, the first woman lawyer admitted to practice in Minnesota.

Justice Paul H. Anderson made appearances as former Minnesota Supreme Court Associate Justice Loren W. Collins.

Jim Simonson (left) portrayed the Honorable John B. Sanborn, Jr., former Ramsey County District Judge from 1922 to 1925.

Former State Law Librarian Barb Golden was instrumental in organizing and presenting the MSCHS' display at the Sesquicentennial Celebration events.